The South-Carolina GAZETTE.

[Numb. 1941.] MONDAY, MARCH 1, 1773.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by T. POWELL & Co. at the Printing-Office near the EXCHANGE.

Mr. POWELL,

SEEING a Book lay upon a Table the other Day, Curiosity prompted me to peep into it, which I happened to open at a Part where the Author treats of the inceſſant War between good and bad Company. His humourous Manner of handling this Subject, gave me much Entertainment and Pleaſure; and as the Peruſal of it may have ſome Effect upon your Readers, I make no Doubt of your Readineſs to inſert the following Extract in your Gazette, for the Amuſement of the Public. I hope to be excuſed the Liberty I have taken, to alter here and there a Word or two, to render it more applicable to the Times and Country we live in. MENTOR.

"HAD the many wiſe Philoſophers of Antiquity, who have ſo often and ſo juſtly compared the Life of a Man to a a Race, lived in the preſent Times, they would have ſeen the Propriety of that Simile greatly augmented: For, if we obſerve the Behaviour of the polite Part of this Country, we ſhall ſee, that their whole Lives are one continued Race; in which every one is endeavouring to diſtance all behind him, and to overtake, or paſs by, all before him; every one is flying from his Inferiors in Purſuit of his Superiors, who fly from him with equal Alacrity.

"Were not the Conſequences of this ridiculous Pride of the moſt deſtructive Nature to the Public, the Scene would be really entertaining. Every Tradeſman is a Merchant, every Merchant is a Gentleman, and every Gentleman one of the Nobleſſe. We are a Country of Gentry, Populus generoſorum. We have no ſuch Thing as common People among us: Between Vanity and Faſhion, the Species is utterly deſtroyed. The Sons of our loweſt Mechanics are ſent to the Colleges of Philadelphia, England, or Scotland, and there acquire, with their Learning, the laudable Ambition of becoming Gentle-Folks, deſpiſe their paternal Occupations, and are all ſolicitous for the more honourable Employments of Doctors, Lawyers, and Parſons; whilſt the pretty little Miſſes at Home are exerciſed in no Profeſſions at all, except thoſe of Muſic and Dancing, which it muſt be confeſſed, make them very agreeable Companions, but will render them very expenſive Wives. Perſons of ſmall Fortune, Clerks, and Apprentices, dreſs in every Reſpect equal to thoſe of the firſt Rank and Eminence, keep their fable Miſtreſſes, waſte their Subſtance in Rioting and Gaming, and their Conſtitutions by Drinking. The Merchant leaves his Counting-houſe for the Ball-room, and the Country Gentleman his Affairs for the Amuſements of the Turf, by which, certainly neither of them receive much Benefit.—Every Planter of Diſtinction is impatient for an elegant Carriage, Horſes, Equipage, &c. and treads hard on the Heels of Quality, in Dreſs, and Expences of every Kind.—The better Sort of Gentry, who can aim no higher, plunge themſelves into Debt and Dependance, to preſerve their Rank; and are even there quickly overtaken by their unmerciful Purſuers. The ſame fooliſh Vanity, that thus prompts us to imitate our Superiors, induces us alſo to be, or to pretend to be, their inſeparable Companions; or, as the Phraſe is, to keep the beſt Company; by which is always to be underſtood, ſuch Company as are much above us in Rank and Fortune, and conſequently deſpiſe and avoid us, in the ſame Manner as we do our Inferiors. By this ridiculous Affectation, are all the Pleaſures of ſocial Life, and all the Advantages of friendly Converſe, utterly deſtroyed. We chuſe not our Companions for their Wit or Learning, their good Humour and good Senſe, but for their Power of conferring this imaginary Dignity; as if Greatneſs was communicable, like the Powers of the Loadſtone, by Friction, or by Contact, like Electricity. Every young Gentleman is taught to believe, it is more eligible, and more honourable, to deſtroy his Time, his Fortune, his Morals, and his Underſtanding, at a Tavern with the beſt Company, than to improve them in the Converſation of the moſt ingenious and entertaining of his Equals. And every ſelf-conceited Girl, in faſhionable Life, chuſes rather to endure the affected Silence and inſolent Head-ach of a Lady two or three Degrees above her, for a whole Evening, than to paſs it in Mirth and Jollity with the moſt amiable of her Acquaintance. But, ſince it is poſſible, that ſome of my Readers, who have not had the Honour of being admitted into the beſt Company, ſhould imagine, that amongſt ſuch is ever the beſt Converſation, the moſt lively Wit, the moſt profound Judgment, the moſt engaging Affability and Politeneſs: it may be neceſſary to inform them, that this is by no Means always the Caſe, but that frequently, in ſuch Company, little is ſaid, and leſs attended to; no Diſpoſition appears either to pleaſe others or to be pleaſed themſelves; but that in the Room of all the before-mentioned agreeable Qualifications, Cards are introduced, endowed with the convenient Power of reducing all Men's Underſtandings, as well as their Fortunes, to an Equality.

"It is pleaſant to obſerve, how this Race, converted into a Kind of Warfare, between the good and bad Company, in this Country, has ſubſiſted for ſome Time paſt; in which the former have been perpetually purſued by the latter, and fairly beaten out of all their Reſources for ſuperior Diſtinction, out of innumerable Faſhions in Dreſs and Variety of Diverſions; every one of which they have been obliged to abandon as ſoon as occupied by their impertinent Rivals. In vain have they armed themſelves with Lace and Embroidery, and concealed themſelves in the Jeſuit and Brunſwick: In vain have they had Recourſe to full bottomed Perirwigs and Toupees, to high Heads and low Heads, and no Heads at all: Trade has beſtowed Riches on the Competitors, and Riches have procured them equal Finery. With as little Succeſs have Fears of Horſemanſhip, Legerdemain, Tricks, Fire-works, and other equally beneficial Diverſions been introduced amongſt us, to exclude bad Company, Tradeſmen, &c. by enhancing their Prices, have found Tickets for their Wives and Daughters, and by this Means have been enabled to inſult the good Company, their Cuſtomers, at their own Expence; and like true Conquerors, have obliged the Enemy to pay for their Defeat. But theſe Stratagems have in ſome Meaſure been obviated by the Prudence of the very beſt Company, who, for this, and many other wiſe Conſiderations, have uſually declined paying them at all.

"The good Company being thus every where put to Flight, they thought proper at laſt, to retire to their own Citadels, that is, to form numerous and brilliant Aſſemblies; in which, they imagined, that they could neither be imitated, nor intruded on. But here again, they were grievouſly miſtaken, for, no ſooner was the Signal given, but many little Houſes in Town of two Rooms and a Cloſet on a Floor, or rather of two Cloſets and a Cup-Board, teemed with Card-Tables, and over-flowed with Company: And, as making a Crowd, was the great Point here principally aimed at; the ſmaller the Houſes, and the more indifferent the Company, this Point was the more eaſily effected; Nor could Intruſion be better guarded againſt than Imitation; for, by ſome Means or other, either by the Force of Beauty, or of Dreſs, of Wealth or Impudence; of Folly enough to loſe great Sums at Play, or of Knavery enough to win them, or of ſome ſuch eminent or extraordinary Qualifications, their Plebeian Increaſe ſoon broke through the ſtrongeſt of their Barriers, and mingled in the thickeſt of their Ranks, to the utter Deſtruction of all Superiority and Diſtinction.

"But though it may be owned, that the Affairs of the good Company are now in a very bad Situation, yet I would not have them deſpair, nor perpetually carry about the Marks of their Defeat in their Countenances, ſo viſible in a Mixture of Fierté and Dejection. They have ſtill one Aſylum left to fly to, which, with all their Advantages of Birth and Education, it is ſurpriſing they ſhould not long ſince have diſcovered; but, as they have not, I ſhall beg Leave to point it out:—And it is this, to return immediately to their almoſt forſaken Habitations in the Country, and there, arming themſelves with Religion and Virtue, Hoſpitality and Charity, Civility and Friendſhip, bid Defiance to their impertinent Purſuers. And though I will not undertake to promiſe, that they ſhall not even here, be followed in Time, and imitated by their Inferiors; yet, ſo averſe are all Ranks of People, at preſent, to this Sort of Retirement; ſo totally diſuſed from the Exerciſe of thoſe Kinds of Arms, and ſo unwilling to return to it, that I will dare venture to promiſe, it will be very long before they can be overtaken or attacked:—But that here, and here only, they may enjoy their favourite Singularity, unmoleſted, for half a Century to come."

BOSTON, FEBRUARY 8.

Wednesday last the Honourable House of Representatives sent the following Message to the Governor.

May it please your Excellency,

THE House of Representatives having directed the Secretary to inform them, Whether you have been pleased to give your assent to the grants lately made to the Justices of the Superior Court of Judicature, &c. and it appearing that your Excellency had not done it. It is their request that you would be pleased to make known to them the difficulty (if any there be) in your Excellency's mind, which prevents your assenting to said grants.

The people without doors are universally alarmed with the report that salaries are fixed to the offices of the said Justices by order of the Crown; and an unusual delay to confirm the grants now made, is judged by this House to be a sufficient apology for this Enquiry.

The GOVERNOR's Answer.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives,

I HAVE received information, that his Majesty has been pleased to order, that salaries shall be allowed to the Justices of the Superior Court, and that such salaries shall continue so long as those Justices shall reside within the province, and whilst they are absent from it with his Majesty's leave; but I have no information that any warrants for the payment of such salaries have been issued. I therefore did not give an immediate assent to the grants which you have made for their services the year past, as the warrants, if they should hereafter be transmitted, may include part of the same time for which your grants are made, but thought it most adviseable to consider of some precaution to prevent all claim from the province for any services for which the Justices may also be entitled to a salary from the King. I hope therefore, a short delay which has been occasioned by a regard to your interest, as well as by a sense of my duty to his Majesty, will not be thought unnecessary.

T. HUTCHINSON.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman belonging to the 14th Regiment, dated Calliaqua, in the Island of St. Vincent, Oct. 30.

"WE arrived safe on the 3d of last month, after staying a few days at Barbados for the transports coming up. Our regiment was all in perfect health when we landed, and are now advanced about ten miles into the Caraibs country.—These Caraibs (so called) are the fellows who give the present trouble; they are a race of Guinea Negroes, who, it is said, were shipwrecked on this Island several years ago; they are now become numerous, and are in possession of the best land in the island.—I imagine our stay here will be longer than we at first expected; for though these Blacks dare not fight us fairly, yet they give trouble by ambuscading us, for which they have an excellent opportunity; the country is naturally strong, being very mountainous and woody: we have destroyed many of them, and on our side there has been some few killed and wounded.—Our regiment has had only two wounded.—This island when properly cultivated, will be very valuable, the soil being esteemed the best in the West-Indies; coffee and Cotton are here in great perfection, with all kinds of tropical fruits; but what is principally regarded by the planters is the sugar-cane, which goes on surprizingly:—The face of the country in the uncultivated parts, makes a most romantic appearance; hills, whose summits reach the clouds, many of them above, covered with perpetual verdure; deep vallies, in which generally runs a stream of fine water; furnished with a number of birds of very good song, makes upon the whole a scene not unentertaining to a thinking mind. It would indeed be highly so, if every thing was in tranquillity, and the heat of the climate not so intense, being only about twelve degrees from the line.——This letter is dated from the place where we first landed, (being only about four miles from Kingstown, the principal place in the island) and where we have left our baggage, women and children; among the latter there has been great mortality, about a dozen being dead since our arrival.

"P. S. I have sent you one of our papers, but it contains little or nothing, the Printer being out in the militia; every man in the whole island, without exception, is obliged to be under arms that is able to carry them.—There was to have been an account of an attack we made upon one of their strongest posts, with our whole force, about ten days since, which we carried, having only one man killed and two wounded; if my ears had been a little longer, I believe I should have lost a piece of one of them."

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Newport, Rhode-Island, to one in this Town, dated January 14.

"As to politicks, the people are quiet, in the thoughts that the famous Judges will find none guilty of burning the Gaspee; but will find things so on enquiry, that their report to his Majesty will not be pleasing to the Tories; and it is said, that all of this sort among us are sensibly disappointed by present appearances, and hang their heads, &c.

SAVANNAH, (Georgia) FEBRUARY 17.

On Saturday last a little before two o'clock in the afternoon, his Excellency Sir James Wright, Baronet, Governor of this Province, landed here from on board the scout-boat from Purysburgh in South-Carolina, under a discharge of cannon. At the landing place he was waited on by his Honour the President, and several members of his Majesty's Council, a Committee from the Hon. the Commons House of Assembly, the public officers, and a number of other gentlemen, who congratulated him on his arrival. Sir Patrick Houstoun's company of light infantry, Capt. Elbert's grenadiers, and the other companies of militia, were drawn up to receive his Excellency, and saluted him with several vollies of small arms. In the evening there were bonfires, the town was illuminated, and other marks of joy were shewn by the inhabitants, on account of his Excellency's return to his government.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to adjourn the General Assembly of this Province until Tuesday next.

The following Address was presented yesterday to his Excellency Sir James Wright, Baronet, Captain General and Commander in chief of his Majesty's Province of Georgia, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the same.

The ADDRESS of the members of his Majesty's Council of the said Province.

May it please your Excellency,

WE the members of his Majesty's Council, beg leave to congratulate your Excellency on your safe return to your government, and to express to you our very unfeigned satisfaction at the distinguishing marks you have received of his Majesty's royal favour, which are the most indubitable proofs of the propriety of your Excellency's conduct during your administration in this province, both as a faithful servant of the Crown, and a sincere friend to the true interest of the people, to which we can bear the strongest testimony.

We therefore beg leave, both as Council, and as individuals,

Council Chamber, Savannah, February 16, 1773.

To the above ADDRESS, his Excellency was pleased to deliver the following ANSWER, viz.

Honourable Gentlemen,

BE pleased to accept my best thanks for your very kind Congratulations on my safe return to this province, and the honourable testimony you are pleased to bear of my past conduct and administration here. I ever meant to discharge my duty as a faithful friend of the Crown, and can with the greatest sincerity declare, I also mean at the same time, to promote, to the utmost of my power and abilities, the true interest of the people, and which I shall always continue to have in view.

JAMES WRIGHT.

[NUMB. 1941.] MONDAY, MARCH 1, 1773.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by T. POWELL & Co. at the Printing-Office near the EXCHANGE.

A brief Account, from the Union, of such Persons as have exercised the Trade and Mystery of Kingly Government within the Island of GREAT-BRITAIN.

SCOTCH Jemmy, the presumptive bastard of an Italian fidler, was born in Scotland. Turning out a bonny lad, and of quick parts, he was put out apprentice in that kingdom, to the business of King-Craft (on which he afterwards wrote a treatise, and called it by that name); to this he served part of his time there, and the remainder in England as a turn over. He dying,

Charles, his son, succeeded him; but, ambitiously grasping at too much business, proved unfortunate, and left the shop to his son. He made large additions to his father's work, by interweaving it with Priest Craft.

Charles the Second, who was some time kept out of possession by Oliver Cromwell, who took the shop over his father's head, and who, though not regularly bred, proved a most subtle, industrious, and able workman. Cromwell dying, this Charles came and opened shop, carried on business but indifferently, owing, it is said, to bad company, being much addicted to lewd women, revelling with buffoons, jesters, and stage-players.—He dying,

Jemmy the Second, his brother, an apprentice, came on trial, but, breaking his oath with his masters, he forfeited his indentures, ran away, and was transported for life; and altho' his son and his grandson have endeavoured to follow the business abroad, they have as yet turned out but meer Pretenders. He was succeeded by one

William, a Dutchman, who married before he embarked from Holland; and, although some authors say he did not wait for an invitation, yet, as he had given some good-will, he took the stock at a fair appraisement, and set up on the old premises, where he and his wife got a comfortable livelihood. They dying,

Ann, his wife's sister, came in, in her own right, and carried on business with great reputation, whilst she employed honest and experienced journeymen; but, turning these away, her credit sunk extremely towards the latter end of her time, through the blunders and mismanagement of one Harley, her foreman, and some others. She dying without issue, in that case the business, which was much extended by William the Dutchman, was left to the present family, the first of whom was

George, and whom we shall call the First; who was succeeded by his son,

George the Second, who, with his father, were very good sort of men, though both were much blamed for neglecting their business, by gadding to a dirty farm, called Hanover. namesake and grandson,

The present possessor, began with a fair prospect; but, being over-ruled and misguided by a favourite servant, has lost great part of his business, and although some of his best friends have remonstrated, and even petitioned him to alter his course, he turning a deaf ear to their advice, being obstinate, has some time since quitted the old trade of King-Craft, and turned Button-maker *.

* His Majesty lately appeared at Court with a new rich suite of cloaths; the Buttons of which were of his own make.

PETER TIMOTHY

BEGS the Favour of those to whom he already has or may hereafter send in Accompts, to make immediate Payment, without obliging him to send again and again; especially as those Accompts are mostly small, and can therefore more easily be discharged.

He has suffered very much, by his past Indulgence, and perhaps Neglect, never having yet (during the Course of 33 Years that he carried on the Printing Business) applied to a Magistrate for a Summons, or an Attorney at Law for a Writ: But, if this Notice shall be as little regarded, as his former Advertisements have been, the Necessity of settling with those who have Demands against him, will oblige him to do both.

For SALE by private Contract,

On such Credit as shall be agreeable to the Purchasers,

Fifteen LOTS of LAND,

The above Lots being also situated most convenient to much the greatest Part of those Places from which the Markets are supplied, it is probable that one will be established on or near them.——The Subscriber is determined to sell to such only as will engage to build thereon.—Buildings are now erecting on such Lots as he has already sold, and every Purchaser shall have free Wharfage of their Materials for Building. SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES-GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over the said Province, and Vice-Admiral of the same,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by a Petition signed by several of the Inhabitants of this Province, settled on or near the Boundary Line, between this Province and North-Carolina, by Virtue of Grants from the Governor of North-Carolina, this Day presented to me in Council, it appears, That the Proclamation issued by me, on the Nineteenth Day of June last, setting forth, That "Whereas, "by the Continuation of the Boundary Line, between this "Province and North-Carolina, which had lately been run, "in Pursuance of His MAJESTY'S INSTRUCTIONS to the "Governors of both Provinces, several Plantations which had "been settled by Virtue of Grants from the Governor of North-Carolina, fell within this Government. IN ORDER to "preserve to the Proprietors of such Grants, the equitable "Right they had to the Lands mentioned therein, I DID, "by the Advice of His Majesty's Council, issue my Pro"clamation; THEREBY STRICTLY FORBIDDING all the "Deputy-Surveyors of this Province, from laying any Warrant "on Lands for which Grants had been obtained in North-Carolina: AND notifying to all Persons possessed of, or in"titled unto, such Grants, that they might have Grants for the "same from this Government, on their producing such Grants, "without their personal Attendance at Charles-Town, provided "Application was made for the same within Twelve Months from "the Date thereof," had not been sufficiently notified to the Persons for whose Benefit it was intended; and the Time therein mentioned, for them to come and take out Grants for those Lands, will be therefore too short: I THEREFORE, taking the same into Consideration, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Honourable Council, to issue this my Proclamation, hereby strictly forbidding all Deputy-Surveyors from laying any Warrants on the Land settled by Virtue of such Grants: AND FURTHER, notifying to all Persons possessed of, or intitled unto, such Grants or Conveyances, that the Time for their applying to have a Confirmation of the same, will be prolonged till the First Day of January next.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the said Province, at Charles-Town, this Seventeenth Day of February, Anno Domini 1773, and in the Thirteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

Charles-Greville Montagu.

By His Excellency's Command,
THOMAS SKOTTOWE, Secretary.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.
COUNCIL-CHAMBER, February 17th, 1773.

WHEREAS there was this Day read at the Board, a Memorial of Matthew Lindsay, Benjamin Davidson, and sundry other Persons, setting forth, That they were Settlers under Grants and Conveyances from the Governor of North-Carolina, on sundry Tracts of Land which now appear, from the Continuation of the Boundary-Line, to be without the Limits of this Province, and humbly praying to be informed what Methods they were to pursue to secure their Titles from this Government, as they were under great Apprehensions of losing their Lands by their being run on Warrants from this Province; and they had been variously directed by several different Persons to whom they had applied for Information: His Excellency the Governor, by the Advice of the Board, directed that the following Minute of this Board, of the Twenty-first Day of Semptember last, should be printed in the Form of an Advertisement, and that several Copies thereof should be sent to be distributed among the Inhabitants of the Country, on this Side of the continued Boundary-Line between this Province and North-Carolina, viz.

MINUTE of COUNCIL of 21st September, 1772.

"THE Clerk informed his Excellency and the Board, that some of the Persons who were settled on the Lands on this Side of the Boundary-Line between this Province and North-Carolina, under Grants from North-Carolina, and Conveyances from original Grantees, who were desirous to secure their Lands, by complying with such Forms as this Government should think necessary to direct, had applied to him to be put into a proper Mode for obtaining new Grants, and he begged the Direction of his Excellency and the Board on that Head: It was thereupon observed, That it would be reasonable to ease such People as were settled under Actual and Bona Fide Grants and Conveyances, of as much Trouble and Expence as possible, and at the same Time it would be necessary to use due Precautions to prevent Grants being obtained under false Pretences; and therefore, it would be proper that their Titles should be referred to some fit Person to examine the same, who, if they were found to be complete, might certify the same, and then, on Petition, their Plats might be ordered to be recorded and certified by the Surveyour-General, and Grants prepared by the Secretary, which would save the Expence of a second actual Survey; and this Method being approved of, It was Ordered by his Excellency, with the Advice of the Board, That the Clerk of this Board do examine all Grants or Conveyances that shall be brought to him for that Purpose; and that he do certify what Titles he shall find, upon such Examination, to be clear, in order that new Grants may be prepared for the same to the Persons respectively claiming to hold them by such Titles."
